

I do not want the law to change! I do not want people harassing me with phone calls at all hours of the day and night selling me their stuff. I was pleased to see the no call list become official and I do not want it weakened. I do not want someone calling me in the privacy of my home and invading my time and right to not be bothered with unwanted, unsolicited calls!!